Note

The Inspector Gl of Edn in the present communication recommends that the pay of Jamkamma, Assistant Mistress of the Arya Balika Pathasala Bangalore, may be raised from Rs 50 to Rs 75, stating that both the Dy Inspector and Lady Superintendent of ~~Girls~~ Govt Girls Schools have reported favourably about her abilities as a teacher

Jamkamma was transferred to Arya Balika Pathasala in May 1898 on a salary of Rs 5-0 * (Please Vide para 2 Sl No 63) and the question of increasing her pay was deferred for a future occasion after the result of her trial in the Arya Balika Pathasala was known (Vide para 3 of Sl no 63)

Stating that Aravindamma is deaf and the distribution of work to Janakamma may be left to the discretion of the Lady Supdt

Under Rules

The question is not very clear. Aravindamma seems to have been already entertained in the Chamarajpet School. She was retained for the Bangalore School. It is not clear whether the Bangalore Inspectress is to remove her and take Rs 20 out of the amount sanctioned for Head.

Mrs Brooks wants to see Janakamma herself before she could express the teacher's personal opinion. Decision - She recommended may perhaps be given after the result of this test is known.

8910/I If as now reported Aravindamma is on account of her deafness, unfit to be a teacher in a public School, is it proposed to dispense with the services? If so, she attended the Normal School for 3 months. Does she get any gratuity?

Bangalore

SIR,

With reference to Government Order No 12763-64/Ed 7 17-96, dated 11th April 1898 I have the honour to inform you that at my late inspection of the Maharani's School I learnt that Arvindamma is deaf and on account of her deafness is unfit to be a teacher in a public school

2 With reference to para 2 of the same order, I have the honour to inform you that Jana Kamma has passed the Vernacular Upper Secondary Examination as well as the Teachers certificate examination of the Upper Secondary Grade. By her attainments she is fit to teach the IV and V Vernacular classes, but hitherto she has been teaching the II class in the Maharani's School. It seems to me best to leave it to the Superintendent of the Government Girls' Schools, Bangalore to try her in the highest class she can teach and if she prove successful to suggest the retirement or transfer of the male teacher she will displace.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

H J Bhabha

Inspector General.

Sir,

Subject - With reference to your Docket No 14585/353 dated 27th June 1897, I have the honour to inform you that Janakka has been teaching the IV Kannada Class of the Arya Balika Pathasala since the date of her appointment

2 The Girls' Schools in Bangalore have been greatly disorganised on account of the prevalence of Plague The services of four male teachers were lent to the Plague Department, two of whom have not yet returned to the Girls Schools The attendance too appears also to have suffered On the return of the Deputy Inspector of Bangalore who is at present on leave I shall

the schools and settle which of the male teachers should be displaced and transferred to boys schools

3 Arvindamma referred to in para 1 of Order No 4735-6 / ED 7 17-96 dated 11th May 1898 is not on account of her deafness capable of teaching any thing else except a little of needlework, drawing and plain Knitting It can not be ascertained why the late Lady Superintendent admitted her into the widows' class knowing her to be deaf. Instead of employing her as an Assistant Mistress on Rs 20 in the Government Girls' School, Bangalore as was sanctioned in Order No 1263-64 / ED 7 17-96 dated 11th April 1898, I recommend that she may be given the pay of Rs 12 saved by the retirement of Gangabaye which has been proposed in my letter No 9823 / 344(a) and she may be appointed as a teacher of sewing and Knitting in the lower classes of the Maharani's School.
